NOVA SCOTIA

BAY OF FUNDY & ANNAPOLIS VALLEY

SAVOUR THE BOUNTY OF LAND AND SEA

This is a place where life is shaped by the sea and fertile soil. Together they tell a captivating story. The world's highest tides carve the dramatic cliffs and caves that define the Bay of Fundy coastline, making it one of the "Top 7 Natural Wonders of North America" and "Canada's Natural Wonder" in the New 7 Wonders of Nature.

BLOMIDON ESTATE WINERY

PARTRIDGE ISLAND

BAY OF FUNDY

Fresh food is a way of life in the heartland of Nova Scotia's farming and wine industry. The climate, rich soil, and grassland work together to produce bountiful harvests and elegant, character-rich wines. The area is home to 17 wineries and multiple, craft breweries, distilleries, and cideries. Meet the producers, discuss their craft, and sample their award-winning creations. For a local delicacy, enjoy succulent scallops in Digby, the scallop capital of the world and home to the world's largest inshore scallop fleet.

The region features eight National Historic Sites, two UNESCO World Heritage Sites, the UNESCO Southwest Nova Biosphere Reserve, partially located within Kejimkujik National Park and National Historic Site and the Cliffs of Fundy UNESCO Global Geopark. Explore the history of the area and learn of the first successful European settlement in North America (1605) at Port-Royal, visit the Landscape of Grand Pré UNESCO World Heritage Site, the iconic place of remembrance of the Acadians, and learn about Mi'kmaw history at Kejimkujik National Park and National Historic Site.

Feel the rush of riding eight to 20+ foot waves in a white-water Zodiac boat as the surging power of the Bay of Fundy's world's highest tides turns the Shubenacadie River into a water roller coaster on the Shubenacadie River, just 30 minutes from Truro. Explore hiking trails leading to incredible vistas that overlook the Bay of Fundy, walk on the ocean floor, and watch for whales off Digby Neck and Islands.
